We have a very great pleasure to inform you that our School Opens Admissions from 5th May of this year for Std V to XI (Sci) both for boys & girls. Parents are requested to contact the principal at his office. The school is situated in the scenic natural surroundings of Amboli hills of the Sahyadri ranges with pleasant climatic conditions, conducive to good health. The school is 90 kms from Kolhapur on Ajara - Amboli road and is easily accessible. The environment of the school provides pollution - free atmosphere, serenity and calmness.

We plan and shape the school life and its routine with a view to provide every facility to bring about all-round development of pupils. Considering the fast moving scientific age and technological developments, we provide opportunities of visiting scientific exhibitions, industrial centers, places of historical and geographical importance etc. We are also imparting computer education. We aim at making our students mentally and physically fit and strong. So, we give sufficient importance to everyday games and sports. In this school discipline is never forced. It is voluntarily developed through love and affection.

The pupil is kept active and interested throughout the day. We watch to spot out talent in a student at the beginning of the academic year and nurture it by giving special coaching. They are encouraged to participate in interschool competitions. The school being residential and English medium, there is every scope for social, cultural and psychological development. More attention is paid to the development of English Language.
